#SPIRITOF77BREWRIES CHALLENGE

PROPER FOOTWARE

When Thom picked up John, he met him in the garage while grabbing supplies. John had donned flip flops to step outside and forgot to change his shoes before he got in the van. By the time John noticed his mistake, it was too late to change.

BREWING LEGEND

As the crew arrived at Montavilla Brew Works, Portland craft beer pioneer Fred Bowman, who started Portland Brewing with Art Larrance, was sitting at the bar.

VIP SERVICE

Old Town Brewery provided the crew with comped pizzas and Splash Bar & Brewery owner, Robert John, helped us skip the line by personally escorting us past the queue to get inside.

ALMOST THWARTED

Three breweries did not serve beer directly to John and Brian. One bartender was on a break and two breweries had stopped serving for the night. Kindly customers shared their beer with John and Brian so they could continue and qualify their challenge.

HERO'S WELCOME

Several breweries were following the progress of the challenge on social media. We arrived to much fanfare at Raccoon Lodge, Vertigo Brewing, Baerlic Brewing Co. and McMenamins Crystal Brewery.
